A Program of  A Gift for Teaching

Team Building That Makes A Difference

More than 70% of public schools in Orange and Osceola counties are considered high-need schools and seek additional resources to level the academic playing field for children living in poverty and homelessness, but you can help!

Turn your next corporate or group gathering into a high-impact event that makes a huge difference.

Making a difference is easy:

1

Determine logistics

Consider the location, budget, time frame, and number of participants.

2

Review options

Look at the kit options and see what best meets your needs.

3

Connect with us

We'll walk through your event and customize it just for you.
